5. The evening Annual Meeting is new this year; the committee though this might be a welcome change.
6. Also new this year is the members will be selling their glass (this is not an auction). The registration form has a slot for reservations for selling your glass. The hotel will provide a table with cloth. You Will do your own set-up, your own pricing, and your own selling. The tables will be on the perimeter of our dining room on Sunday night. You will be responsible for having your own money to “make change”. You can set up your shop AFTER 4:30 on Sunday afternoon; first come first serve. NO LAST MINUTE ADDITIONS OR CHANGES.
7. And one more “newby”. Should you have a compote, celery, or spooner you wish to sell put a price on the bottom,tape over it with your name on it. The committee would love to use your pieces for centerpieces starting with our dinner on Friday night. Committee must have the piece by 4 p.m. on Friday AND please notify Gloria Dobbs in advance (see how on the registration form) so committee knows they have decorations! Just another way to sell/buy glass.....
8. Holly McClusky , Curator for the Oglebay Glass Museum, will share with us Friday morning prior To the Tour, the background and the making of the Glass Museum. Many of us think we have seen The Museum. Incorrect. It opened in December 2022 with a complete new redo. Good stories/history to come!
